ME IN THE FOREST

Indie-Folk with a Lo-Fi attitude. Always embracing Hippie Culture with a sparkle of Jazz.

The duo Me in the Forest navigates the space between indie folk, pop, and experimental soundscapes. Their tracks are open musical landscapes where melodies, harmonies, and textures serve as the starting point for spontaneous variations.

Christoph Brachmann's fingerstyle acoustic guitar and Franziska Weber's warm, jazzy vocals provide the common thread, while arrangements and details shift from concert to concert. Since 2026, the duo has been expanding its sonic spectrum in collaboration with a rotating cast of guest musicians, creating concerts that are unique every time.
